NARRATIVE:

Mark Brown is a registered sex offender and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 26. His convictions include rape, burglary, weapons violation, multiple assaults, possession of a stolen firearm, attempted possession of a stolen firearm, failing to register as a sex offender, petty theft, possession of controlled substances, several thefts, shoplifting, possession of drug paraphernalia, probation violations, disorderly conduct and unauthorized possession of syringe. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 12 year term for rape. Brown was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 29, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Brown qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
